UH HBRC Participates in UH Veterans' Services Event

April 8, 2010 (Houston TX) James B. Evans, Director of the UH Hurricane Business Recovery Center and an authority on small business development, was one of three featured speakers yesterday at the 5th Annual Veterans' Entrepreneurship Seminar. Mr. Evans' presentation focused on financing a small business. Also speaking at the seminar was MaryJane Mudd, a marketing expert, and Ravi Kathuria, a management consultant.

The keynote speaker for the seminar was former heavyweight champion, entrepreneur and author George Foreman. He spoke of his troubled youth, his life changing experience with the veterans he met as a very young man, and his many experiences in the ring and as an entrepreneur.
